DOYLESTOWN, Pa., January 27, 2009 –Wesley Enhanced Living at Heritage Towers, a continuing care retirement community (CCRC) located in Doylestown, awarded its first ever Mission Live Award to Restorative Certified Nursing Assistant Dawn Suber during a special ceremony at the CCRC on January 9.

The Mission Live Award recognizes the Wesley Enhanced Living employee who best exemplifies the mission of creating a compelling difference in the lives of residents through providing excellence and innovation in aging services. Suber was selected from over 600 Wesley Enhanced Living employees throughout Pennsylvania to receive the highest honor and most significant recognition from the organization.

Suber joined Wesley Enhanced Living in 2003, and has served as an integral part of the restorative nursing department. As the Mission Live Award winner, she received an official resolution from the Wesley Enhanced Living Board of Directors, an engraved crystal trophy, a plaque that will be displayed at the retirement community and corporate offices and a monetary award.
